

Our Core Values

We have some golden rules for providing exceptional service to you. They are:

- * Quality
- * Value
- * Simplicity

Quality

Green Ant Consulting is a service business which aims to work in a collaborative and responsive way with clients. Our vision of quality is that you, the client, receive a service which is suited to your needs, has as much input from you as you wish and within timescales that work for you.

Value

Our vision of value is to provide you with a service that includes:

- * A full analysis of your needs and current issues.
- * Collaboration with you during the design phase to ensure that your needs and objectives are being met.
- * High quality delivery pitched to suit the backgrounds and levels of participants.
- * A post delivery follow-up and evaluation service to ensure that your investment in your people has produced real benefit in the right places.

Simplicity

We would like our programmes to help you achieve real changes and benefits with the minimum of fuss. Therefore, we will always aim to use models, techniques and examples that are right for your people and your organisation which can be effectively transferred to your workplace.
